

Associate Profile

Keith Stopforth

Keith is an experienced Leadership Coach and Facilitator, valued for his knowledge, insights and practical style. Ensuring that when he engages with clients he can easily build rapport, establish a plan of action and give them practical tools to move their challenges on quickly.

Before entering the world of Consulting Keith worked in Retail, Financial Services and Healthcare, and since 2012 he has worked across multiple sectors, at all levels, in both the UK and Internationally.

Keith is passionate about developing people, teams and businesses. His core belief is that everyone is yet to achieve their best and through his interventions he can create the platform for them to move forward in whatever way they need to. As a facilitator, he engages quickly with his audience, uses storytelling to illustrate key theories and models, and seeks to involve everyone.
