

Associate Profile

Tania Farchy

Tania trained as a professional actress at the Academy of Live and Recorded Arts in London. She went on to perform contemporary and classical roles in repertory theatres; including the Bristol Old Vic, Cheltenham Everyman and the Globe London also in Shakespeare in the Park, Bois de Boulogne, Paris. Tania headed a touring theatre in education, 'Syllabus' Theatre Company around England and Wales.

Today Tania lives in Paris and works as an actor, corporate voice coach and voice artist in animation (Disney Channel UK, advertisements, e-learning and in house corporate projects).

Having worked within the corporate world since 2006, Tania specialises in presentation and phonetic accent coaching for Executives and managers, both in group and 1:1 mentoring. She has helped global companies such as Nokia, Orange, BASF, AXA, Alstom and EADS.

Qualifications/Experience

- BA Hons acquired from drama school ALRA in London
- 20 years of providing drama and speech training

Specialist Areas

- Corporate voice coaching
- Presentation and phonetic accent coaching
- 1:1 mentoring

"Perfectly reacts to the behaviour of the group members, very challenging, and great actor, really helped...I'd like to do that again"

