

Coach Profile

Shona Marshall

Shona has over 20 years corporate experience in a wide spectrum of working environments. As a result she has developed a versatile approach and infectious enthusiasm that enables her to be effective in a range of environments.

Shona has a genuine curiosity to create lightbulb moments to enable others to grow and develop. She has gained a reputation for having an inquisitive yet challenging approach, a natural ability to create a 'safe' place for others to explore their thoughts to enable them to identify solutions and ensures they feel equipped and confident to move to action. She takes a refreshingly straight forward approach to individual, team and executive coaching.

Over the years Shona has been very fortunate to hone her coaching skills through working with senior managers and leaders, individuals facing career challenges and senior executives as they move into more strategic roles.

Qualifications/Experience

- MSc
- BA (Hons)
- Certified coach
- FCIPD
- NLP Practitioner

Specialist Areas

- Stepping-up to Leadership
- Increasing power and influence
- Challenging interpersonal situations
- Building a strong personal brand
- Navigating organisational politics

